ACCP's Member Clinical Pharmacists: Influential in All Health Care Settings

The American College of Clinical Pharmacy (ACCP) represents nearly 10,000 clinical pharmacy practitioners, educators, researchers, students, and trainees. Founded in 1979, the mission of ACCP is to advance human health and quality of life by helping clinical pharmacists expand the frontiers of their practice and research.

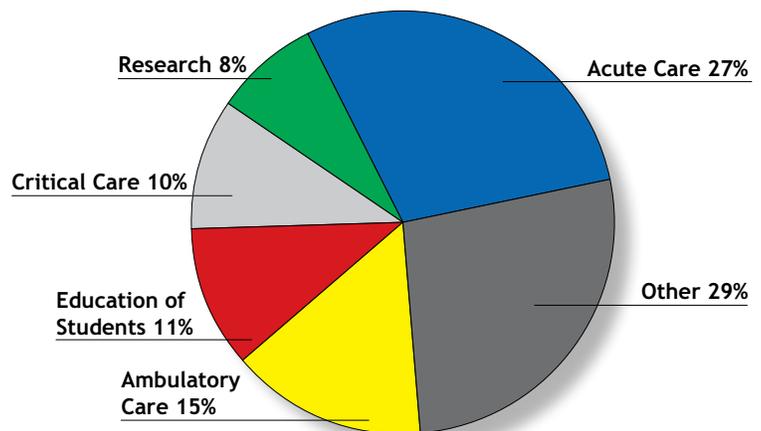

Today, clinical pharmacists work in virtually every health care practice setting. The majority of ACCP members are employed in hospitals and health care systems or academic institutions. The primary professional position they report most frequently is clinical pharmacist, followed by assistant professor and pharmacy manager/supervisor or clinical coordinator.

The primary practice or professional setting reported most frequently by ACCP members is acute care. The primary professional interest areas most frequently reported include infectious diseases, critical care, internal medicine, ambulatory care, hematology/oncology, cardiology, and pharmacotherapy.

Primary Professional Interest Area

Infectious Diseases	16%
Critical Care	12%
Ambulatory Care	11%
Cardiology	10%
Pharmacotherapy	7%
Oncology	6%
General Medicine	6%
Pediatrics	4%
Geriatrics	4%
Other	24%

Primary Practice/Professional Setting/Function

Here's What Exhibitors Say About ACCP's Exhibits

"High degree of interaction during the exhibits."

"All members of our company were extremely impressed with the caliber of attendees."

"Intertwining the posters and exhibits is an excellent way to draw people toward exhibits."

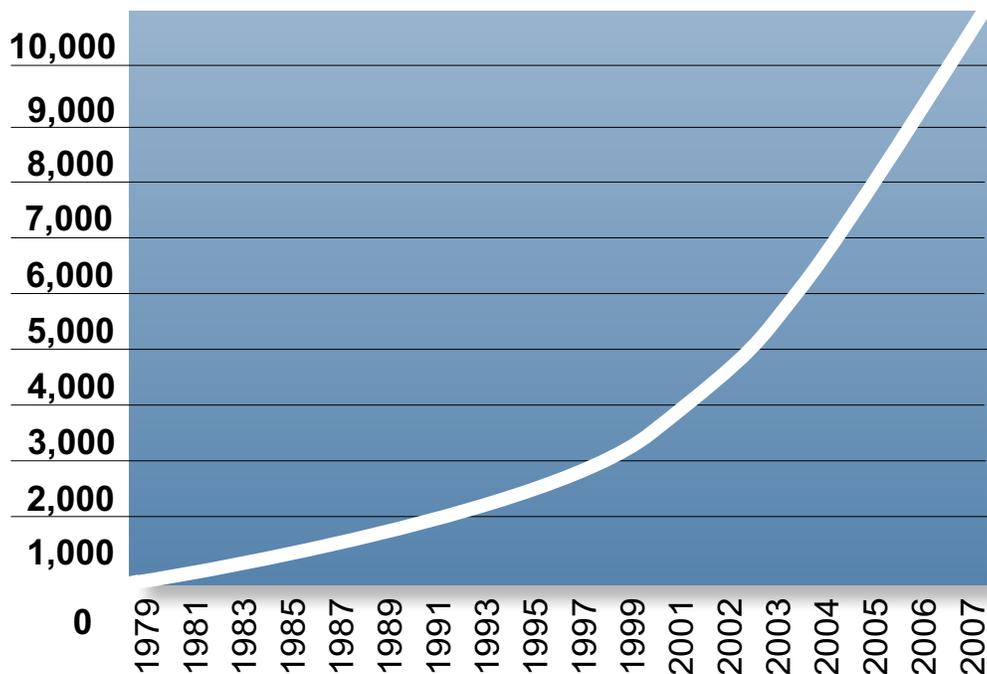

"I especially liked the format for the exhibits. The time was spent very productively."

"We appreciate the opportunity to display to this very important group of professionals."

The American College of Clinical Pharmacy... The Future of Pharmacy Is Here

In 1979, a small group of forward-thinking individuals realized the need to advance the evolving practice of clinical pharmacy. They founded the American College of Clinical Pharmacy, an organization that now serves nearly 10,000 clinical pharmacists.

ACCP Membership Growth

ACCP's Member Clinical Pharmacists: Influential Experts in Drug Therapy

On average, 70% of ACCP meeting attendees are members. An exhibit at the ACCP Annual Meeting reaches clinical pharmacists who are experts in pharmacotherapy and influential in drug therapy decision-making.

In a recent survey, 43% of ACCP members reported recent service on a Pharmacy Therapeutics Committee or Formulary Committee. Eighty-two percent are consulted by physicians and other health professionals on the choice of therapeutic agents for their patients. Sixty-six percent of those respondents provide this consultation daily. Eighty-six percent report that they have provided in-service programs or other forms of clinical education to health care providers outside pharmacy. ACCP members are influential professionals.

Why You Should Exhibit with ACCP

ACCP's professional exhibits program puts you in touch with drug therapy experts who serve on formulary committees and who routinely provide consultation to physicians on therapeutic agents for patients. Your exhibit at the Annual Meeting gives you direct access to these influential professionals.

Maximum Interaction and Visibility

ACCP's exhibit program affords maximum interaction and visibility with attendees. Among the many reasons to exhibit at the Annual Meeting are 6 hours of exhibit time and traffic-builders, including food functions, scientific poster presentations, and the ACCP Recruitment Forum in the exhibit area.

Tuesday, October 21, 2008

Kentucky International Convention Center, Hall 2D

ACCP's Recruitment Forum is a convenient opportunity to connect in person with high-quality job candidates in an informal setting. This annual career fair draws clinical pharmacists from throughout the U.S., both those beginning their careers and those seeking advanced practice clinical positions.

Past exhibitors have successfully participated in the Recruitment Forum, and we invite you to do the same. By listing your available jobs through ACCP's Online Position Listings service, your reach to potential applicants is virtually endless—listings are available to the public 24 hours, 7 days/week. Listing a position also gives you access to the applicant database, allowing you to reach potential candidates for hire prior to the career fair.

Participating in the Recruitment Forum is easy and economical. Simply register for at least 1 day of the Annual Meeting (exhibitor-only registration does not apply) and post at least one job listing through ACCP's Online Position Listings. Spaces at the Recruitment Forum are reserved on a first-come, first-served basis. For complete details on this popular career fair, check the ACCP Web site www.accp.com in June 2008.
